

The equations of a line

1. Discuss why, using reference to free variables, a plane can be defined in terms of a single equation in three variables, while a line must be defined in terms of two equations.